

SALVUS CENTER, INC.
556 HARTSVILLE PIKE SUITE 200
GALLATIN, TN 37066
PHONE: 615-451-0038 FAX: 615-451-0121

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES FOR PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION

Our office is permitted by privacy laws to make uses and disclosures of your health information for purposes of treatment, payment, and health care operations. Protected health information is the information we create and obtain in providing our services to you. Such information may include documenting your symptoms, examination and test results, diagnosis, treatment, and applying for future care or treatment. It also includes billing documents for those services.

Your Health Information Rights

The health and billing records we maintain are the physical property of the doctor's office. You have the following rights with respect to your Protected Health Information:

1. Request a restriction on certain uses and disclosures of your health information by delivering the request in writing to our office – we are not required to grant the request, but we will comply with any request granted.
2. Obtain a paper copy of the Notice Of Privacy Practices for Protected Health Information by making a request at our office.
3. Right to inspect and copy your health record and billing record – you may exercise this right by delivering the request in writing to our office using the form we provide to you upon request; appeal a denial of access to your protected health information except in certain circumstances.
4. Right to request that your health care record be amended to correct incomplete information by delivering a written request to our office using the form we provide to you upon request. (The physician or other health care provider is not required to make such amendment); you may file a statement of disagreement if your amendment is denied, and require that the request for amendment any denial be attached in all future disclosures of your protected health information.
5. Right to receive an accounting of disclosures of your health information as required to be maintained by law by delivering a written request to our office using the form we provide to you upon request. An accounting will not include internal uses of information for treatment, payment, or operations, disclosures made to you at your request, or disclosures made to family members or friend in the course of providing care.
6. Right to confidential communication by requesting that communication of your health information be made by alternative means or at an alternative location by delivering the request in writing to our office using the form we give you upon request.

*If you want to exercise any of the above rights, please contact, Shelley Ames, Executive Director, Salvus Center, Inc., 556 Hartsville Pike Suite 200 Gallatin, TN 37066, in person or in writing, during normal hours. She will provide you with assistance on the steps to take to exercise your rights.

Our Responsibilities

This office is required to:

- Maintain the privacy of your health information as required by law.
- Provide you with a notice as to our duties and privacy practices as to the information we collect and maintain about you.
- Abide by the terms of this Notice.
- Notify you if we cannot accommodate a requested restriction or request.
- Accommodate your reasonable request regarding methods to communicate health information with you.
- Accommodate your request for an accounting of disclosures.

* We reserve the right to amend, change or eliminate provisions in our privacy practices and access practices and to enact new provisions regarding the protected health information we maintain. If our information practices change, we will amend our Notice. You are entitled to receive a revised copy of this Notice by calling and requesting a copy of our "Notice" or by visiting our office and picking up a copy.

To Request Information Or File A Complaint

If you have questions, would like to additional information, or want to report a problem regarding the handling of your information, you may contact Shelley Ames, Executive Director, at 615-451-0038.

Additionally, if you believe your privacy rights have been violated, you may file a written complaint at our office by delivering the written complaint to Shelley Ames. You may also file a complaint by mailing it to the Secretary of Health and Human Services whose street address is
The U.S. Department of Health and Human Services

200 Independence Avenue, S. W. Washington, DC 20201
1-202-619-0257 or Toll Free 1-877-696-677

Other Uses and Disclosures Allowed by the Privacy Rule

- Patient contact:
We may contact you to provide you with appointment reminders, with information about treatment alternatives, or with information about other health-related benefits and services that may be of interest to you. We may contact you as part of fund-raising effort.
- Notification – Opportunity to Agree or Object
Unless you object, we may use or disclose your protected health information to notify, or assist in notifying a family member, personal representative, or other person responsible for your care, about your location, and about your general condition, or your death.
- Communication with family
Using our best judgment, we may disclose to a family member, other relative, close personal friend, or any other person you identify health information relevant to that person's involvement in your care or in payment for such care if you do not object or in an emergency
- We may use and disclose our protected health information to assist in disaster relief efforts.

Public Health Activities

- Controlling Disease – As required by law, we may disclose your protected health information to public health or legal authorities charged with preventing or controlling disease, injury, or disability.
- Child Abuse & Neglect – We may disclose protected health information to public authorities as allowed by law to report child abuse or neglect.
- Food & Drug Administration (FDA) – We may disclose to the FDA your protected health information relating to adverse events with respect to food, supplements, products and product defects, or post-marketing surveillance information to enable product recalls, repairs or replacements.
- Victims of Abuse, Neglect, or Domestic Violence – We can disclose protected health information to governmental authorities to the extent the disclosure is authorized by statute or regulation and in the exercise of professional judgment the doctor believes the disclosure is necessary to prevent serious harm to the individual or other potential victim.
- Oversight Agencies – Federal law allows us to release your protected health information to appropriate health oversight agencies or for health oversight activities to include audits, civil, administrative or criminal investigations; inspections; licensures or disciplinary actions, and for similar reasons related to the administration of healthcare.
- Judicial/Administrative Proceedings – We may disclose your protected health information in the course of judicial or administrative proceedings as allowed or required by law, or as directed by a proper court order or administrative tribunal, provide that only the protected health information released is expressly authorized by such order, or in response to a subpoena, discovery request or other lawful process.
- Law Enforcement – We may disclose your protected health information for law enforcement purposes as required by law; such as when required by court order, including laws that require reporting of certain types of wounds or other physical injury.
- Coroners, Medical Examiners and Funeral Directors – We may disclose your protected health information to funeral directors or coroners consistent with applicable law to allow them to carry out their duties.
- Organ Procurement Organizations – Consistent with applicable law, we may disclose your protected health information to organ procurement organizations procurement organizations or other entities engaged in the procurement, banking, or transplantation of organs, eyes, or tissue for the purpose of donation and transplant.
- Research – We may disclose information to researchers when their research has been approved by an institutional review board that has reviewed the research proposal and established protocols to ensure the privacy of your protected health information.
- threat to Health and Safety – To avert a serious, imminent threat to the health or safety of a person or the public.
- for Specialized Governmental Function – We may disclose your protected health information for specialized government functions as authorized by law such as Armed Forces personnel, for national security purposes, or to public assistance program personnel.
- Correctional Institutions – If you are an inmate of a correctional institution, we may disclose to the institution or its agents the protected information to the extent necessary for your health and the health and safety of other individuals.
- Workers Compensation – If you are seeking compensation through Workers Compensation, we may disclose your protected health information to the extent necessary to comply with laws relating to Workers Compensation.
- Others Uses and Disclosures – Other uses and disclosures besides those identified in this Notice will be made only as otherwise authorized by law or with your written authorization, which you may revoke except to the extent information or action has already been taken.
- Website – If we maintain a website that provides information about our entity, this Notice will be on the website.

EFFECTIVE DATE: MARCH 20, 2006
